TOPIC OF INTEREST

Know more about Nomination

6. Can there be more than one nominee?

Ans. No, at present only one nomination can be made for one depository account.

7. Can a minor be a nominee?

Ans. Yes, a minor can be a nominee. In such a case, the guardian will sign on behalf of the nominee and in addition to the name and photograph of the nominee, the name, address and the photograph of the guardian must be submitted to the DP.

8. Can separate nomination be made for each security held in a depository account?

Ans. No. Nomination can be made account wise and not security wise.

9. Can a NRI be a nominee?

Ans. Yes, NRI can be a nominee subject to the exchange control regulations in force from time to time.

10. What is the procedure for appointing a nominee?

Ans. The nomination form duly filled-in should be submitted to the DP either at the time of account opening or later. The account holder/s, nominee and two witnesses must sign this form and the name, address and photograph of the nominee must be submitted. If nomination was not made at the time of account opening, it can be made subsequently by submitting the nomination form. While opening a new account, you have to mandatorily provide either the nomination details or state that "I/We do not wish to make a nomination". In case of existing accounts (opened before January 2009) where nomination is not done, you are requested to provide nomination details or submit a declaration that you do not wish to make a nomination in respect of your account to your DP.

11. Can the nominee be changed?

Ans. Yes, the nomination can be changed anytime by the account holder/s by simply filling up the nomination form once again and submitting it to the DP.
